- See enclosed brochure

Also in attendance was Marty Drennan and his wife, and Sinata Black they all own property on Irish Road. There has been some issues with the properties on Irish road and having right away to the owner's property. The prosecuting attorney was unable to be here tonight so he has suggested that the residence involved could please set up a meeting where this can be discussed other than at the township meeting. Paul Brady from the Zoning Commission was also in attendance to forward this information on from the prosecuting attorney – they will set up a meeting where they can all meet and discuss this further.

Mrs. Black came to the meeting and she informed the trustees that she wants the gossip to stop and she wants to be left alone. She was very upset and informed the trustees that all of this just has to stop. The trustees informed Mrs. Black that this issue has nothing to do with the trustees and that this would need to be taken care of with the prosecuting attorney.
